

1950 Burlington, Burlington House

- I. Welcome and Introduction of Members – Eighteen members were in attendance, 2 new members
- II. Art in the Works: Members briefly described current projects
- III. Public Art Project- Benches in Seminole Park are being painted
- IV. Charla Cribb spoke about the December AEHK Emerging Artist Show to be held at Woodfield Fine Art Gallery, 2253 Central Avenue, from 11 AM – 9 PM, Saturday, December 9, 2017. In addition, the space next door, Bee Studios Design, will be used to showcase jewelry, pottery and other art in this show.
- V. Jim Woodfield, assisted by Steven Kenny, gave a mini-lecture on properly preparing for a gallery show. He stressed the importance of having a prepared artist statement, bio and business cards available, as well as proper lighting, space and identification for each piece (Attachment A).
Brooke Eversoll from Bee Studios Designs was also in attendance.
- VI. BungalowFest participation update: One homeowner is willing to host an artist who can display in an uncovered garden space. AEHK artists agreed that an indoor venue was preferable for fine art displays and would pass on the offer.
- VII. Spring Artist Tour dates: Sat & Sun, March 10 & 11, 2018; will check for any conflict with Board, Grand Central, and Arts Alliance calendars
- VIII. November Speakers: Yael Kelly and Jan Richardson will present a mini-lesson on how to properly price one's art.
- IX. Adjournment 7:05 PM

Respectfully submitted,
MJ Baker, AEHK Liaison