

1950 Burlington, Burlington House

- I. Welcome and Introduction of Members –26 members and 2 new members attended; Art in the Works: Members briefly described current projects; Joy Rose is recuperating at her mom’s farm in Ohio after a fall resulting in a broken wrist.
- II. Members agreed to renew the contract for the AEHK current location meeting space at 1950 Burlington for a fee of $250 for 2018, excluding June and July. Members asked for the meeting time to be changed to 6:30 PM if possible. Members agreed to continue to ask for Arts Alliance (and other organizations calling for artists) emails to be forwarded.
- III. Public Art Project/Dining for Art:
Reception held Sun, Nov 12, 4-5PM. Thank you!
Ideas for future projects?
- IV. Jan Richardson and Yael Kelley presented a mini-lesson on How to Price One’s Art. It was informative and useful considering the Emerging Artist Showcase in Dec 9, 2017 (Attachment A)
- V. Spring Artist Tour dates: Sat & Sun, March 17 & 18, 2018 to make it the same weekend as last year: 3rd weekend in March; will check for any conflict with Board, Grand Central, and Arts Alliance calendars
- VI. Charla Cribb spoke about the December AEHK Emerging Artist Show to be held at Woodfield Fine Art Gallery, 2253 Central Avenue, from 11 AM – 9 PM, Saturday, December 9, 2017. In addition, the space next door, Bee Studios Design, will be used to showcase jewelry, pottery and other art in this show.
- VII. Adjournment 7:05 PM

Respectfully submitted,
MJ Baker, AEHK Liaison